

Dr. Maria Cecilia Aluning

A Dentist, who owns and operates Carson Dental Care. From Bicol, Philippines, I came to the US in 1980 after graduating from high school at 14 years old. I returned to Manila to study Dentistry in 1986 and graduated at Centro Escolar University in 1992. After graduation I returned to the United States, persevered and passed the California Dental Board Exam and was licensed as a dentist in 1998. I acquired my practice from my Uncle, Dr. Billy Torres, when he retired in September, 2000, and named it Carson Dental Care. I have been serving the City of Carson and its neighboring cities for 18 years now.

I am compassionate, loves to help people and love being a dentist. As gentle and caring person, I have the patience to take care of even the most difficult and anxious patient. I am a general dentist and is trained to do implants, orthodontics, and cosmetic dentistry. I was awarded as one of "The TOP DOCS in LA" in 2014, which was featured in Fox 11 news. In 2016, was recognized as one of "The Outstanding Pilipino in Los Angeles" (TOP Awards). Was recognized and given an award by FACC/SLAA in 2017. To keep me abreast to the new procedures and technology in dentistry, I continuously take continuing education.

I am married to Godofredo "Gody" Aluning, has 3 children - 2 girls and 1 boy. Jacqueline, 21, Jillian, 20 and Gody Jerico, 17. My daughter, Jacqueline, was the title holder of the "Bb. Pilipinas-USA - Tourism" in 2016. My family is my Big WHY and the love my life.
